

The Wonderful Purposes of the Lord

*O, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable his judgments,
And his paths beyond tracing out!*
Rom. 11:33

Take a sheet of colored construction paper.
Tear it into a shape that you think best represents your life.
Save the pieces that you have torn away.

(Because God uses even the torn and thrown away things in our lives, take some time now to reflect on how God has used even your mistakes and failures as He continues to transform your life.)

Therefore I urge you, sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God --- this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is --- his good, pleasing and perfect will ---

Rom. 12:1-2

Psalm 37:1-7
(a good Psalm for renewing the mind!)

In Psalm 37:1-7 there are six commands given. Each is followed by a promise! On the shape you have created, write out the command and the promise which seems to impress itself on your heart.
